

I am not in favor of any change to the telephone privacy act which would weaken it--specifically the request by the CBA to allow banks with whom I do vbusiness to make unsolicited calls to my phone. The telephone privacy act has virtually eliminated marketing calls to my phone & I not in favor of anything which would change this.